

PLEASE PRUNE NOW before the nesting season begins

The urban environment we enjoy is unique and very important to our feathered friends. Birds nest in the bushes and trees in our gardens between February and August.

Your trees will appreciate a moderate pruning (when needed) during the fall and winter months.

Thank you.
Sea & Sage Audubon

Please copy and distribute this to your friends.